Kapitel 17: Graveyard of Memories

Graveyard of Memories

Turn off the lights my lovely dear –
Let nightmares begin and please, don't fear.
We're entering my holy place
Where all the hope just buried lays.

A memory in every grave
Lying deep and soft and save.
But when the night opens its arms
Again every mem'ry harms.

I'm on the graveyard alone
And always on my own
When I drown in memories again
Just memories which cause a pain.

And memories just cause a scare...
But holy ending – it's so far!
I'm tired of living ... tired and sick.
Please, sweet death, let me know your trick!

The trick to escape your thoughts through the night!
The trick – just one time – to win the fight!
The trick to make people believe your lie!
The trick to be happy ... the trick to die.
